French Government Issues Reassuring Statement-Strikers Still Proclaiming War.

Paris, March 20.—The government to-night issued a reassuring statement con-cerning the strike in which the situation was said to be notably improved, many of the strikers, especially the telephone girls, returning to work. The strike lead-ers, on the other hand, at the various meetings held tonight, were loudly pro-claiming war to the hilt, and there are disquieting rumors of railroad and other co-operative strikes.

disquieting rumors of railroad and other co-operative strikes.

The belief prevails that there will be improvement developments over Sunday through the elimination of M. Simyan, under-secretary of posts and telegraphs, whose presence has been the chief obstacle to a settlement. It is openly intimated that the government, having secured the indorsement of the chamber of deputles, is not anxious longer to should ger Secretary Simyan's unpopularity.

Disclosures in connection with the strike indicate that the abuses and favoritism charged have been largely due to do with the administration of the post and telegraphic service.

Mr. McEwen that he has something up his sleeve that he has an idea is a sticker, and firmly believes that he has finally got the handcuff wizard in a tight corner. McEwen laughs at the idea, and will endeavor to undeceive the deputy sheriff at this, the last performance.

Besides the attempt of the deputy, the employes of the theatre will make a vigorous attempt to annex the $50 forfeit put up by Mr. McEwen for anyone who may be successful in constructing a box that is escape-proof. The boys have had a box constructed, which they will put together before the footlights,

At a late hour tonight the situation was practically stationary, but there was a growing impression that the first of the week would see the return of many of the older employes in response 'the circulation of a semi-official intimation that Under-Secretary Simyan would resign, and that the government undertakes a serious consideration of the grievances of the men. By the return of the older employes it is hoped to break the backbone. Much disappointment has been extinced in the supervision of a committee volunteered from the audience. This box is barely large enough to contain Mr. McEwen. However, he will be compelled to get into it, and also be handcuffed and shackled. Should he not be successful in making his escape the boys win the $50.

It was done, and the determined to the bond and returned to ployes it is hoped to break the backbone of the strike.

Some evidence of the growing listlessness is found in the fact that practically no strikers responded to a call for two big meetings this evening. Nevertheless, the strike committee still maintained that the government was strong throughout the country, and had even made notable progress in the valley of the Rhone.

he has already made arrangements for next week, and must leave the city Monday morning.

Los Angeles, March 20 .- Arthur C. Harper, former mayor, and Edward Kern, former member of the board of public works, will refuse to answer questions propounded to them by the grand jury when they are summoned before that body next week. This is the statement of Horace Apple, counsel for Kern and Harper, who says that he had advised both draw men to assume that attitude.

The chief interest in the graft cases revolves around these two men, both of advance sale of seats Saturday. Not whom resigned from office a few days only were a large number of sales made, ago under supposed pressure from a news- but reservations were coming in all day paper, which was said to have strong evidence against them. The continued absence of Nick Oswald, so-called "king of the tenderloin," together with the attitude of Harper and Kern, may render the work of the grand jury in ferreting out the facts a difficult problem. Although the Mexican border has been searched for ndred miles, Oswald has not been l. No arrest has yet been made following the indictment aganist an unknown person, supposed to be Oswald, returned yesterday by the special grand jury.

BONDS NEXT AUTUMN.

Washington, March 20.—A conference of two hours on the new tariff bill and its relation to the revenues of the treasury was held at the White house this afternoon. Secretary MacVeagh, Secretary Knox and Senztor Aldrich were with President Taft. At the conclusion of the conference the opinion was expressed that it will not be necessary to issue bonds to meet current expenditures before next autumn, if at all. The revenues of the treasury are increasing and the outlook is more hopeful than some time ago, it is stated.
